

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR SPRIGGS CHIROPRACTIC

Spriggs Chiropractic holds some information about you. This document outlines how that information is used, who we may share that information with and how we keep it secure. This notice does not provide exhaustive detail. However, we are happy to provide any additional information or explanation needed. Any requests for this should be sent to the hello@spriggsci chiropractic.co.uk We keep our Privacy Notice under regular review. This Privacy Notice was last reviewed in May 2018.

1. What We Do

Spriggs Chiropractic provides chiropractic, rehabilitation and diagnostic imaging services to patients to improve their health through spinal manipulative therapy, soft tissue therapy, exercise and traction where appropriate. We focus on rehabilitative healthcare and the optimisation of physical health. Through chiropractic consultations, posture and lifestyle analysis and diagnostic imaging (if appropriate, or reviewing previous imaging), we aim to understand the underlying causes of your health issues which we will seek to address through personalised chiropractic care, lifestyle advice and/or appropriate referrals.

We also undertake educational opportunities through in clinic health talks, as well as external talks for the community and corporate talks on chiropractic and lifestyle subjects. We also provide posture screening services.

2. How We Obtain Your Personal Data

Information provided by you

You provide us with personal data in the following ways:

- By completing a chiropractic intake form and questionnaires
- By signing informed consent and clinic policies & procedures
- During a chiropractic consultation, progress exam or session
- Through email, over the telephone or by post
- By making payments in person or online and giving details for electronic receipts

This may include the following information:

- Basic details such as name, address, contact details and next of kin
- Details of contact we have had with you such as referrals and appointment requests
- Health information including your previous medical history, dietary, lifestyle, supplement and medicine details, biochemical test results, diagnostic imaging, clinic notes and previous treatment information
- GP contact or consultant information
- Bank details

We use this information in order to provide you with direct healthcare. This means that the legal basis of our holding your personal data is for legitimate interest.

Following completion of your healthcare we retain your personal data for the period defined by our professional association United Chiropractic Association (UCA) and registrant body, General Chiropractic Council (GCC). This enables us to process any complaint you may make. In this case the legal basis of our holding your personal data is for contract administration.

Information we get from other sources

We may obtain sensitive medical information in the form of diagnostic imaging and/or notes from hospitals or medical centres. We use this information in order to provide you with direct healthcare. This means that the legal basis of our holding your personal data is for legitimate interest.

We may obtain sensitive information from other healthcare providers. The provision of this information is subject to you giving us your express consent. If we do not receive this consent from you, we will not be able to coordinate your healthcare with that provided by other providers which means the healthcare provided by us may be less effective.

3. How we use your personal data

We act as a data controller for use of your personal data to provide direct healthcare. We also act as a controller and processor in regard to the processing of your data from third parties such as testing companies and other healthcare providers. We act as a data controller and processor in regard to the processing of credit card and online payments.

We undertake at all times to protect your personal data, including any health and contact details, in a manner which is consistent with our duty of professional confidence and the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) concerning data protection. We will also take reasonable security measures to protect your personal data storage.

We may use your personal data where there is an overriding public interest in using the information e.g. in order to safeguard an individual, or to prevent a serious crime. Also where there is a legal requirement such as a formal court order. We may use your data for marketing purposes such as newsletters but this would be subject to you giving us your express consent.

4. Do you share my information with other organisations?

We will keep information about you confidential. We will only disclose your information with other third parties with your express consent with the exception of the following categories of third parties:

- Our registrant body, GCC and our professional association, UCA, for the processing of a complaint made by you
- Any contractors and advisors that provide a service to us or act as our agents on the understanding that they keep the information confidential
- Anyone to whom we may transfer our rights and duties under any agreement we have with you
- Any legal or crime prevention agencies and/or to satisfy any regulatory request (e.g. GCC) if we have a duty to do so or if the law allows us to do so

We may share your information with your healthcare insurance company, as part of providing you with direct healthcare, this is only done so following your request (including verbal request) to use a private healthcare insurance policy for your treatment.

We will seek your express consent before sharing your information with your GP or other healthcare providers. However, if we believe that your life is in danger then we may pass your information onto an appropriate authority (such as the police, social services in the case of a child or vulnerable adult, or GP in case of self-harm) using the legal basis of vital interests.

5. What are your rights?

Every individual has the right to see, amend, delete or have a copy, of data held that can identify you, with some exceptions. You do not need to give a reason to see your data.

If you want to access your data you must make a subject access request in writing to hello@spriggschiropractic.co.uk Under special circumstances, some information may be withheld. We shall respond within 20 working days from the point of receiving the request and all necessary information from you. Our response will include the details of the personal data we hold on you including:

- Sources from which we acquired the information
- The purposes of processing the information
- Persons or entities with whom we are sharing the information

You have the right, subject to exemptions, to ask to:

- Have your information deleted
- Have your information corrected or updated where it is no longer accurate
- Ask us to stop processing information about you where we are not required to do so by law or in accordance with the UCA and GCC guidelines.
- Receive a copy of your personal data, which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine readable format and have the right to transmit that data to another controller, without hindrance from us.
- Object at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you

We do not carry out any automated processing, which may lead to automated decision based on your personal data.

If you would like to invoke any of the above rights then please write to the Data Controller at Spriggs Chiropractic, Suite 1 The Courtyard, London Road, Newbury, Berkshire, RG14 1AX or email hello@spriggscihiropractic.co.uk

6. What safeguards are in place to ensure data that identifies me is secure?

We only use information that may identify you in accordance with GDPR. This requires us to process personal data only if there is a legitimate basis for doing so and that any processing must be fair and lawful.

Within the health sector, we also have to follow the common law duty of confidence, which means that where identifiable information about you has been given in confidence, it should be treated as confidential and only shared for the purpose of providing direct healthcare. We will protect your information, inform you of how your information will be used, and allow you to decide if and how your information can be shared.

We also ensure the information we hold is kept in secure locations, restrict access to information to authorised personnel only, protect personal and confidential information held on equipment such as laptops with encryption (which masks data so that unauthorised users cannot see or make sense of it). We ensure external data processors that support us are legally and contractually bound to operate and prove security arrangements are in place where data that could or does identify a person are processed.

Spriggs Chiropractic is registered with the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO) as a data controller and collects data for a variety of purposes. A copy of the registration is available through the ICO website (search by business name).

7. How long do you hold confidential information for?

All records held by the Spriggs Chiropractic will be kept for the duration specified by guidance from our professional association UCA and regulatory body GCC.
